A Rare Legacy: Obi Agu, Obi Imegwu II of Aboh

By Chukwunwike Ossai · Biography · Ozikoro.com

Obi Imegwu II created a unique place in the history of the Aboh Kingdom. In a twist of destiny and tradition, he not only served as the king of Aboh but also attained the revered position of Okpala(ODUAH)

This scarcely combination made him the only King in the history of Aboh Mmiri to hold both the mantle of kingship and the spiritual authority of an elder at the same time. He passed on at the age of 110.
